

A team from Overton Carbide & Engineering participated.

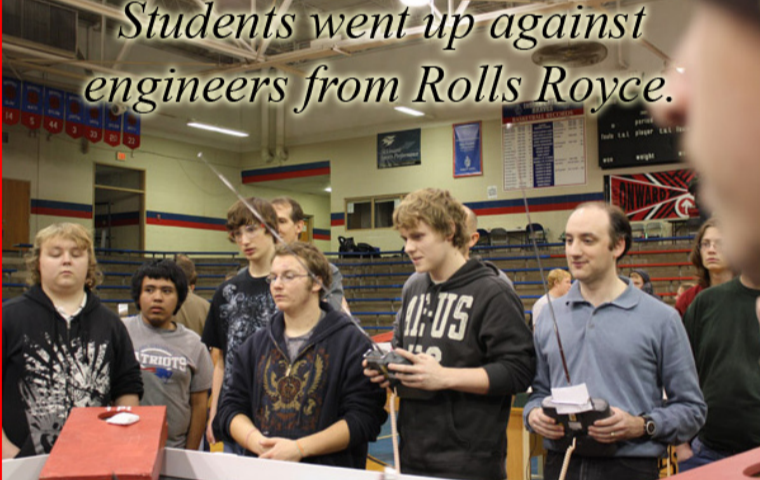

Cummins ranked the highest among the company teams.

Visual Edge participated as a company team.

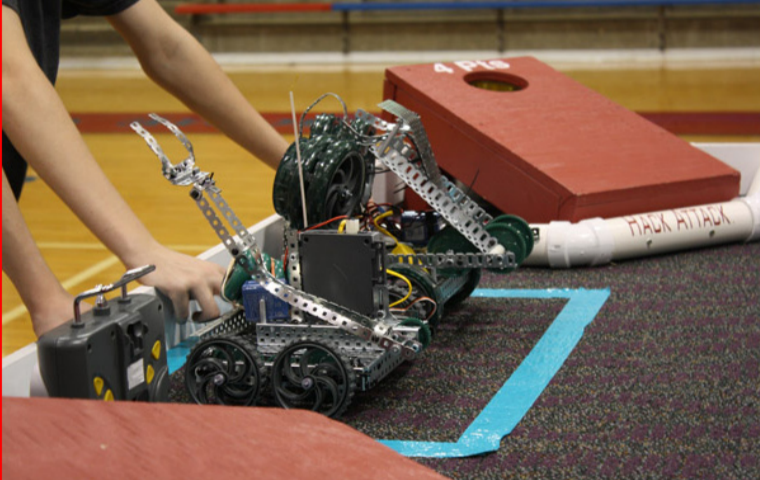

Family & Consumer Science students made the game pieces.

Students went up against engineers from Rolls Royce.

Computers & Design students produced game animations.

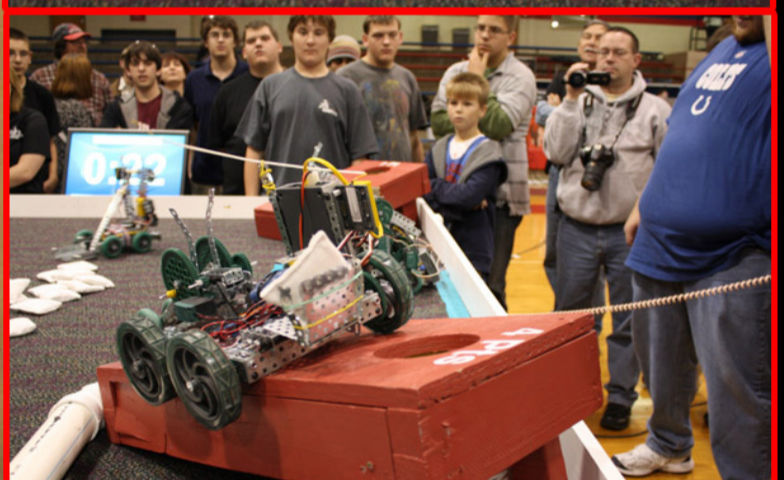

Manufacturing Systems students designed promotional materials.

Only students were allowed to design & build the robots.

Manufacturing Systems students produced game components.

Students learned to work as a team to accomplish goals.

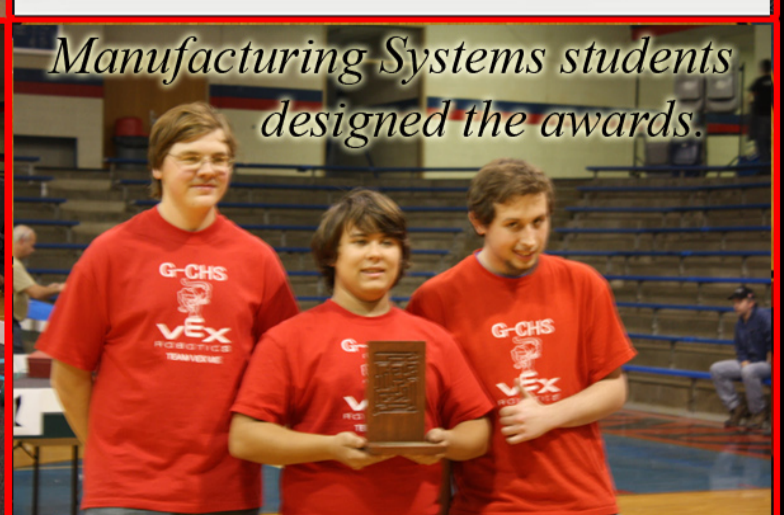

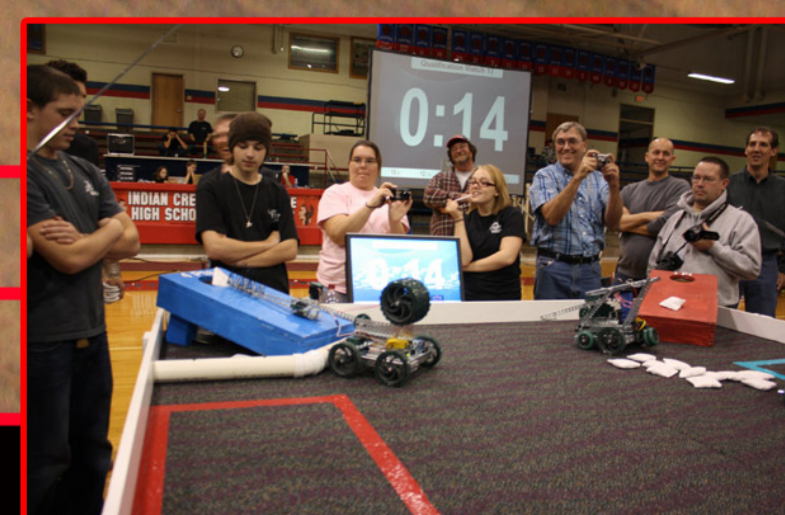

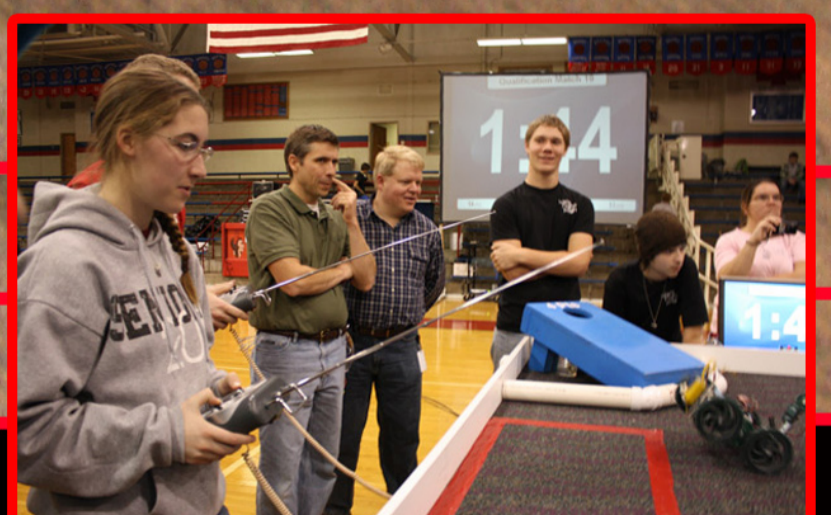

Students had only 12 hours from 8pm Friday to 8am Saturday to design and build robots.

Design Processes students produced files and CAD models.

Manufacturing Systems students designed the awards.

Indian Creek High School
803 West Indian Creek Drive
Trafalgar, Indiana 46181

